DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 2/19/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Regarding claim 14-16 on page 19, applicant argues that Kandlur does not disclose using first picture type to set a bit rate corresponding the size information of the picture type and converting first second picture type to first picture type using the set bit rate. However examiner respectfully disagrees. MPEG encoder (508) has feed back rate controller. After the input picture encoded (first picture), controller uses the buffer fullness (size) to set scale factor for the next picture to encode (converting to first picture).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) The invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim14-16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kandlur et al (Patent No. US 5,742,347)

Regarding claim14, 15, Kandlur et al (hereinafter Kandlur) anticipates an encoder comprising: a determining unit configured to receive a first picture type, wherein first picture type is used to set a bit rate corresponding to size information of the first picture type (see figure5 element 508); and an encoding unit for converting the second picture type into the first picture type using the set bit rate (see figure5 element 508 and column5 line 13-23).

Regarding claim16, Kandlur anticipates an encoder for performing the method of claim 15, the encoder comprising: a determining unit configured to receive the second picture type to set the bit rate corresponding to the size information of the first picture type (see figure5 element 508 and column5 line 13-23); and an encoding unit configured to convert the second picture type into the first picture type using the set bit rate (see figure5 element 508 and column5 line 13-23).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim1-13 and 17-22 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The present invention directed to an apparatus for controlling a bit rate during reverse play of a digital video stream. The independent claims identify uniquely distinct feature “...determining a bit rate using size information from an intra-coded picture of a first subgroup of pictures in the group of pictures received from the sorting unit, and setting bit rates of next subgroups of pictures using the determined bit rate” The closest prior art Kandlur et al (Patent Number US 5,742,347) either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitation obvious.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
